

KIZILAYKART PROGRAMMES

May 2020

Kızılaykart is a platform where humanitarian, private, and public sectors come together. It provides regular cash support via banking infrastructure to the vulnerable people that meet the specified criteria. The Platform was initially established in 2011 to support Turkish citizens in need. Food assistance has been provided to the Syrians who had to leave their country due to the internal conflict in March 2011. To meet the basic needs of vulnerable groups, the Kızılaykart Platform has started to be implemented in 2012 with In Camp Food Assistance Programme, under which nine different programmes are implemented as of 2020. Among the nine Programmes six of them are still in operation.

Different programmes can be applied and separate wallets can be defined to Kızılaykart, according to different conditions and payment regulations to strengthen the needy and bring social harmony. With the expertise of Türk Kızılay in information management, various programs for different target groups in different categories can be implemented with different donors and stakeholders under the roof of Kızılaykart. Within the current structure of the Kızılaykart Platform; basic needs, education, livelihood, and protection-based humanitarian programmes are implemented.

In Camp Food Assistance Programme

Starting Date of the Programme: October 2012

In Camp Food Assistance Programme is implemented for foreigners living in five different temporary accommodation centers in Turkey, with the partnership of Türk Kızılay, Directorate General of Migration Management (DGMM), and UN World Food Programme (WFP). The people receive €15 per person each month (e-coupon) which they can spend on contracted markets located inside the camps.

The programme, which has been implemented since 2012, aims to ensure that individuals can access the food they prefer through freedom of choice. The programme is funded by; Germany, Japan, Norway, South Korea, and USA.

Personalized card application was provided as of October 2019 in all camps.

Conditional Cash Transfer for Education (CCTE) Programme

Starting Date of the Programme: May 2017

The coverage of the Conditional Cash Transfer for Education (CCTE) Programme which was implemented for children who are Turkish nationals in 2003, was extended by 2017 to the foreign children with the funds of ECHO, Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration Office (BPRM) of US, and the Government of Norway.

CCTE Programme is being implemented with the partnership of; Türk Kızılay, Ministry of National Education (MoNE), Ministry of Family, Labor and Social Services and UNICEF. It was aimed to ensure that children have access to school and attend classes regularly with the cash assistance offered under the programme. The cash assistance amounts vary according to gender and school levels between €5 to €9 for each month. The payments are made on a bi-monthly basis and the programme proposes to interrupt the assistance if the children are absent at school for more than four days in a month.

The protection component for reached children within the scope of the CCTE Programme are carried out by Türk Kızılay Community Based Migration Programmes. There are specific child protection offices across Turkey. Within the scope of the programme, identifying children who are absent, determining the risks in the scope of protection and monitoring are carried out with precision.

Adult Language Training (ALT) Programme

Starting Date of the Programme: March 2019

As a result of researches for target groups conducted within the scope of Kızılaykart, it has been detected that the biggest obstacle for foreigners' employment and social cohesion is the language barrier. Within this framework, Adult Language Training for Syrians under Temporary Protection in Turkey Programme is being implemented with the Ministry of National Education (MoNE) and the UN Development Programme (UNDP). Foreigners who are going to participate in the Adult Language Training Programme, which is being implemented in 10 provinces, are provided with cash support through Kızılaykart in consideration of their participation. Trainees are paid €0,9 per hour for their participation in the training (three hours a day, three days a week). The programme is funded by resources provided by the EU Trust Fund (EUTF) for Intervention in the Syrian Crisis. The target audience is 52.000 people.
